FREE META ADS REVIEW

Your Facebook & Instagram ads, reviewed

Prepared for Whitaker Roofing · Douglasville, GA

DATE	BASED ON	PREPARED BY
October 2026	Public Ad Library + website	Prriyankarr, BrightPeak Ads

The short version

Whitaker Roofing has kept an ad running since February 4, 2025, and it already has several versions, which is a good habit. After this long, though, many people in your area have likely seen it many times. A brand-new ad built around recent projects and your free inspection offer, aimed at each office's area, is the clearest next step.

What we looked at

Active ads	At least 1 active ad on Facebook and Instagram
Oldest active ad	Running since February 4, 2025 (more than 20 months)
Ad versions	The ad has multiple versions
Where clicks go	Not confirmed for this review
Website quote path	"GET A QUOTE" and "SCHEDULE MY INSPECTION" buttons both go to wrcroofing.com/contact-us/
Contact page	Says "leave a message below"; our tools couldn't load the form itself, so we couldn't check its fields

What we found and how to fix it

1 The main ad has run for more than 20 months

HIGH PRIORITY

WHAT WE SAW An ad in Meta's Ad Library has been running since February 4, 2025. It has multiple versions, but they all sit inside the same ad.

WHY IT MATTERS Local audiences are small. After this long, most people Meta can reach have probably seen these versions many times, and fewer of them respond, which usually pushes up the cost of each lead.

THE FIX Launch a new ad with photos from recent jobs and a clear "Get a free inspection" offer, then retire the oldest versions once the new one is running.

2 Quote and inspection buttons all lead to one general contact page

MEDIUM PRIORITY

WHAT WE SAW	On your homepage, "GET A QUOTE" and "SCHEDULE MY INSPECTION" both go to wrcroofing.com/contact-us/. That page covers every office and invites people to "leave a message below."
WHY IT MATTERS	Someone who clicks an inspection ad wants to book an inspection, not read a list of offices. A page or form built for that one action usually turns more clicks into requests.
THE FIX	Send ad clicks to a short free-inspection form (name, phone, address or ZIP), either on your site or as a Meta instant form.

3 Six offices across three states, so ads can speak locally

MEDIUM PRIORITY

WHAT WE SAW	Your contact page lists offices in Douglasville (headquarters), Alpharetta, Bremen and Kathleen, Georgia, plus Nashville, Tennessee and the Birmingham, Alabama area, each with its own phone number.
WHY IT MATTERS	Homeowners respond better to an ad that names their area and a nearby office. One general ad across all areas misses that.
THE FIX	Create a version of the new ad for each region that names the nearest office and uses that office's phone number.

Quick wins for this week

1. Start one new ad with recent project photos and a "Get a free inspection" offer.
2. Test a Meta instant form that asks for name, phone and ZIP code.
3. Make a version of the ad for each office area with its local phone number.
4. Submit your own contact form from a phone to confirm requests arrive.

What this review can't see

> This review uses only what's public: your ads in Meta's Ad Library and your website. Without access to your ad account, it can't check:
>
> - Cost per lead or sale, and which ads actually bring in customers
> - Whether your Meta Pixel and Conversions API are tracking leads and purchases correctly
> - Audiences, budgets, bidding and how your campaigns are structured
